Johann Friedrich Wilhelm KOCH

Friedrich was born in Rakau, Brandenburg, Prussia in 1826. He was 12 years old when he and his family arrived at Port Misery SA. He was confirmed in 1842 at Hoffnungstahl.

When Friedrich was 23 years of age, he married Wilhelmine Ernestine Warnest 29 November 1849 by Pastor HAE Mayer at Bethany. Their witnesses were Gottlieb Koch and Karoline Bohm.

Johann Friedrich Wilhelm KOCH (First born son)

Friedrich was baptised 18 October 1850 by Pastor HAE Mayer at the Bethany Herberge Christi Church, with his sponsors being Johanne Louise Warnest, Johann Samuel Schulz and Johann Gottlieb Koch.

He married Louise Fredericke Bertha Geue, the daughter of a farmer and publican. On 3 November 1875, JFW Koch took up land at Kilkerran which he and his family farmed, and as it has been said his reason for moving was 'there were just too many Koch's in the Barossa area' and he wanted to move further afield. Unfortunately Friedrich's wife died in 1883 leaving him with 4 young children.

In 1884 Friedrich married Auguste Albertine Braunack aged 27 years and living at St Kitt's at the time. They married at Ebenezer with Pastor Joh Christian Auricht officiating. The newly-married couple then went to live on his farm at Kilkerran.

Friedrich passed away in 1909 and Auguste, with the help of her neighbours continued managing the farm. When her youngest son, Jacob married, she left to live with her daughters in Adelaide, Paruna and Rowland Flat. She passed away on her birthday in 1935 at Rowland Flat and was buried next to her husband at the South Kilkerran cemetery.

The farm is now owned by his grandsons Keith and Denis Koch, and in 1975, centenary celebrations were held on the original farm with a cairn and plaque, placed in what once was the front garden of JFW's home.
